

Are you our next Planning and Purchasing Intern?

We are currently looking for a final year undergraduate or graduate student who has a passion for planning and purchasing. If you are someone who is highly communicative, pays close attention to detail, and is reliable, and also fluent in English, then you might be the perfect fit for the position we have available!

An essential role within our Factory team

Our Factory team is welcoming newcomer who will be supporting supply chain proces, and all local initiatives and projects. Being familiar with production planning, purchasing and logistic is a plus.

What will you be doing?

- Providing administrative support to the purchasing department by creating purchasing orders in SAP
- Ensuring prompt purchase realization
- Introducing the transportation procedure and import process
- An overview of the process for planning and purchasing production materials
- Introducing the process of production planning
- Implement and manage projects and activities in coordination with the line manager